Q -Can I send a press release via email?

A - You may send press releases about general news issues and upcoming events to newsdesk@smh.com.au.

You may also fax general news press releases to 02 9282 3253. On all press releases make sure to do the following:

Keep all releases short. Write clearly, addressing who, what, where, why or when in the first two paragraphs. Identify the organisation or individual sending the release and include the name and daytime phone number (with area code) of someone we can contact if we have questions

Q - How can I send a Letter to the Editor?

A - The Sydney Morning Herald receives over 400 emails each day as well as faxes and snail mail for Letters to the Editor. This makes it impossible to reply to all correspondence. The Letters Editor can only publish 35 - 40 letters on the page. All letters and email (no attachments) to the Herald must carry the sender's home address and day and evening telephone numbers for verification. Ideally, letters will be a maximum of 200 words. By submitting your letter for publication, you agree that we may edit the letter for legal or space reasons and may, after publication in the newspaper, republish it on the internet or other media.
